

My Friend!

When the city Council met Monday night, it was a memorable event. Joe Carlevaro's birthday was celebrated. By the time it ended, the night had been over for nearly two hours. Everyone grew as the meeting went on and personality clashes would have been understandable. Yet there was an attitude of kindness and patience generally on the part of Council, audience and Rimov and his associates. Ferreira remarked that members of the Council and members of the Albany Bay Committee are sincere, dedicated people who want to do the right thing for Albany. It almost made worthwhile to stay up until 2 in the morning just to see these groups openly discuss their differences without bitterness.

THE 100th MEMBER of Albany Chamber of Commerce is a general Registry corporation with offices in Albany Square at San Pablo. They register credit cards, notify all firms who are listed in the city directory and to you in case they are stolen—at a reasonable fee. According to Gene Barker, president, they are only a few weeks old but their first project is attempting to help the El Cerrito Boys Club out of a deficit of about $10,000. They have issued 25,000 forms to the boys will be distributed in Albany, El Cerrito and Alameda. For every new account resulting from the distribution, the Boys Club will get one dollar.

MRS. MERLE WELLS is at the after spending eight months in a hospital and rest home since suffering a stroke. Her husband, owner of Wells Repair on Solano, says she's doing around the house and is happy to be home again.

FOURTH OF JULY at Memorial Park couldn't have been better. Weather-wise, program-wise, people-wise. The sun was bright and warm but there was a breeze (no fog). The Recreation Department's program of events was lots of fun for young and old. Plenty of hot coffee, pop, cotton candy, in the Alteen Booth and an optional California Varieties (Continued on Page 3)

'RESTLESS ONES' AT ALBANY METHODIST

"The Restless Ones," considered the most successful motion pictures yet produced by Evangelist Billy Graham, will be shown at Albany United Methodist church, corner of Marin and Stannage Aves., Tuesday, July 15 at 8 p.m.

With the accent on youth, this feature-length film deals imaginatively and dramatically with the teenage crisis. With a background setting provided by the 1963 Billy Graham Los Angeles Crusade, and artfully woven into the story pattern, "The Restless Ones" is a hard-hitting, bold approach to our social problems. Having seen it, you will never be the same.

As one reviewer said, "Here is a picture that tells the world the truth and comes up with an answer, not an easy answer, but an answer from beyond us." This answer will satisfy, challenge and inspire young and old alike and will appeal to churchgoers and non-churchgoers. The Christian message comes through in the midst of a realistic teenage situation, cleanly and without cloying. Swift-moving plot episodes highlight opportunities facing the church.

Screen writer James Collier has skillfully brought into focus the contemporary plight of both teenagers and parents. A sensitive script, produced by World Wide Pictures under the direction of Dick Ross, has resulted in a "break-through" in "The Restless Ones."

There is a nominal admission charge.

He will get a trophy for the June 28th hole-in-one, which was on the 14th hole. He used a No. 2 wood.

Tree Planting Continues

WHILE RE-EVALUATION of the Street Tree program is under study, tree planting continues in Albany as evidenced by the recent planting of three trees for Mr. and Mrs. Dominic Giannelli of 901 Solano Ave. In the foreground are City Councilman Joe Carlevaro, liaison officer to the Park and Recreation Commission, and C. F. Graeber, chairman of P&R commission. The Giannellis are in the background. —Fire Department Photo.

'Operation Shop Early' Announced by Red Cross

Hopefully this year 50,000 servicemen may be returned from Vietnam, but thousands more will still be half a world away from home at Christmas. To show them that they are not forgotten the Berkeley-Albany Red Cross chapter will again participate in the nationwide Red Cross "Operation Shop Early" designed to provide a filled Christmas bag for every U.S. Serviceman on field duty in Vietnam. A quota of 900 bags, each to contain at least eight gift articles, has been set for this area, according to Mrs. Lewis Giegerich, in charge of "Shop Early" this year.

Donations of gifts, or of contributions to buy them, are being accepted now at the Red Cross, 2116 Allston Way, Berkeley. In order to reach the men by Christmas all articles must be at the Red Cross chapter by Aug. 1. Groups and organizations of all kinds are invited to join in this tangible expression of appreciation to our combat troops.

Here is the way "Shop Early" works: Sturdy red and green cloth bags, serviceable to their owners after the original contents are used, are being made by volunteers at the Red Cross. As gifts are received, they will be plastic wrapped and packed in the bags with a card bearing the name of the chapter, and the donor's name if requested, enclosed in each bag.

Here are some of the items on a "most wanted" list compiled by men in the combat areas: pen-size flashlights with batteries, writing tablets with self-seal envelopes, small address books, small metal mirrors, plastic tooth brush holder, soap holder, cigarette case, terry wash cloth (not white or red), nail clippers, "Wash and Dries," white cotton socks, size 10-12, soap, plastic sandwich bags (5 per bag, not wax paper type), windproof cigarette lighter and flints. All items should be new.

Call the Berkeley-Albany chapter, American Red Cross for further information, 845-1430.

Signe Allen Photos At Albany Library

Photographs by Signe Allen are on exhibit at the Albany Library during the month of July.

Signe notes: "I have been a professional photographer, primarily of children, for the past 15 years. Since I prefer the candid approach, much of my experience has been in shooting nursery school kids (with camera!) along with family portraits, publicity pictures for Camp Fire Girls, etc.

"As my interests are varied, and I tend to photograph most things that interest me, this show contains a smattering of children, mountains, sea shore and recent local history.

"For the past several years I have been active in the ACCI Photo Co-op. The present is my first one-man show."

Four BCDC Bills Considered At 9 a.m. Thursday

According to Senator Lewis Sherman's office, the Senate Finance committee has slated hearings on four Bay Conservation and Development bills at 9 a.m. tomorrow (Thursday) morning in room 4203 of the State Capitol.

Albany officials oppose the Knox-Petris and Dolwig bills, which are strongly favored by Save-the-Bay and other conservation groups. Two other bills are by Senator Marks of San Francisco and Assemblyman Don Mulford, both of which would continue the existence of BCDC in its present status.

Albany City Council and Alameda Mayors' Conference point out that the Knox-Petris and Dolwig bills open the "back door" to regional government and would violate the principles of home rule by taking over regulation of zoning inland 1,000 feet from the Bay, its creeks and tributaries.

Council RIMOV WATERFRONT PLAN ADOPTED AT 1:45 A.M.

Albany City Council adopted the specific plan for the city's waterfront in a session which continued for nearly six hours Monday night and Tuesday morning.

The resolution, prepared during a recess called about 12:30 a.m. and continuing for nearly an hour, was unanimously adopted shortly before adjournment at 1:45 a.m.

According to Senior Councilman Lewis Howell, who has served for 18 years, the meeting was the longest he has ever attended.

Although the audience dwindled throughout the night, there were 12 spectators, two reporters and a poodle in the Council chambers when Mayor Richard O. Clark asked if anyone in the audience had anything to say under the final category, Good of the City.

"Yes, goodnight," said Mrs. Robert Twiss.

Most of the session was devoted to a public hearing on the Rimov plan for Albany Isles.

Leon Rimov, planning consultant, opened the hearing with a step-by-step outline of progress to date. He was accompanied by Richard Harding, soil specialist; Milt Leong, structural engineer; Tom Lowry, consultant on piles and utility lines, and William Farrington, supervisor of soil lab tests.

It was pointed out that because the mud depth is 55 to 60 feet in the tidelands, regular pilings could not be used. Pipe filled with concrete was suggested as the best way to support buildings on the fill.

Rimov suggested that a non-profit corporation, similar to the Oakland Port Authority, be set up to manage the waterfront development to insure long term continuity and a purposeful direction.

Projected cost and income of the Rimov plan were set forth in charts.

Council was told that uniformity of fill is essential to minimize settlement problems. Consultants recommended utilities on pilings. Rimov suggested establishing beach and park areas and breakwaters as soon as possible, starting with what is already filled. He said he envisions no direct cost to taxpayers, although in citing maintenance costs, he projected the necessity for three additional firemen and policemen and one park and recreation department employee per 2.3 acres.

Various members of the audience raised questions, which were patiently heard by council and answered by Rimov and others in his group. Clay Berling questioned whether the project would go, if people would be willing to invest their money in it. Edith (Continued on Page 8)

Alberito members have invited community leaders to join with them in this celebration.

President May Bensted announces there will be a no host social hour at 6:30 followed by dinner at 7:30. Dinner will be served in the banquet room at Serb's.

The committee in charge of this program are Aline Neale, Una Roderick and Irene MacWilliams.

Flood of Inquiries On $70 Warrants

State Controller Houston Flournoy said his office is receiving many inquiries about the Homeowners' Property Tax Relief payments, many of which can only be answered by the local county assessor, bank or, in some cases, legal counsel.

Applications certified for payment still are being received from county assessors, Flournoy pointed out. All received by June 27 will be included in a mailing to an estimated 200,000 applicants on July 9. Inquiries about the status of any individual application should be directed to the county assessor concerned, he said.

In addition to inquiries, the state controller's office received 14 warrants from persons who voluntarily declined the payment and 48 thank-you notes.

First $70 payments went out on Friday, June 13, to 2,237,000 property owners.

With the first half of the year gone, we are at the most pleasant crossroads, where summer, that winsome jade, fulfills the promise made when the rains were falling... that there would be a time of rejoicing, mosquitoes and sunburn, but that, too, will pass.

In the meantime a capacity crowd enjoyed the Ogleby party on July 1st, and the catered luncheon was a fitting precedent to two hours of play. Our man of the hour, Jack Langley, is out again with reservations for the next party on August 5th. Call LA 6-1601 to get in on this event. Due to some unforeseen illness we have a few seats left for the Ice Follies on Wednesday, July 30, and would be glad to include you among those present for this lovely spectacle. Call LA 6-1601 or LA 6-3078 for reservations.

Plans for the August trip are now in the making, calling for a visit to a top-secret department of our Government, followed by a lunch at the exotic Cathay House in San Francisco's Chinatown. There will be plenty of time for you to browse in those fascinating shops, in the most colorful Oriental section in North America.

Our Betty Crocker coupon drive is coming to a most successful conclusion, and we want to thank all the contributors for participating in this very worthy cause. A new dimension is anticipated in the Craft class, which is busy forestalling Christmas time, which seems to steal up on us suddenly. Non-members are welcome to this class, so bring a sandwich and come in on Wednesday at 10 and stay for coffee time.

While we are not a rental bureau we occasionally have something to pass on and at present have a little apartment, furnished, in a good section of town, for a single man or woman, and very reasonably priced. Call LA 6-1601 for information on this.

Hope you had a happy Fourth, and you can thank our fine Superintendent of Recreation for setting up so many events to appeal to all comers. Don't forget to feed the birds, and we'll see you next week.

My Word . . .

Show in the Veterans' Building provided enjoyment for the throngs who made it a safe holiday at home.

A long-time fan of Mary Culley and her three adorable trained poodles, I couldn't get over how slick and professional the act has become in the past couple of years. When I told her I could see it on the Ed Sullivan show, she said, "Oh, I'd love to. Then we could buy an ambulance for the Humane Society."

Pat Culley has taken over as drummer for the group since the regular drummer, on leave for military service, was killed in Vietnam. He's really amazing.

A sad postscript to the July 4th show, in which Melody Cox danced a new dance for the first time and before which she made the front page of a newspaper for the first time (last week's Times), was the death early Saturday in Pleasanton of Melody's mother, who has accompanied Melody to Albany and was delighted with the dance and the publicity.

When you consider that this talented group voluntarily presents top-flight entertainment at veterans' hospitals, military bases, USO programs and at several fairs and that none is a professional, you have to hand it to them. They really know how to please crowds.

The races for little kids are always a scream. Take one reluctant two-year-old, put one parent behind him (coaching) and the other behind the finish line (coaxing). Start the race and everything falls apart. Some tykes start out pretty good, then stop dead, looking around. Others won't take the first step. The little guy who won third walked all the way, stopped and ogled the crowd, then made his zig-zagging way to the finish line while his pop almost had a coronary and judges calmly waited for SOMEONE to cross the line so they could award the ribbon.

The older they get, the tougher the competition. Final race of the day is for men 35 and over. Bill Davis was challenging everyone before the race, fell flat on his face in the dust half-way to the finish line!

It's jolly good fun, perhaps corny by some standards, but July 4th in Memorial Park doesn't frazzle the nerves, wear you out behind the wheel and certainly has never contributed to the holiday traffic toll!

IN THE LAST ISSUE, we noted that John McDonald of McDonald's had donated an orange drink dispenser to the Altens for their July 4 food booth. He also—more importantly—donated the contents, which added to the young people's profits.

ALBANY CHAMBER of Commerce reports 72 dozen cups of ice cream were devoured in record time by those who attended the Memorial Park celebration on Independence Day.

SPEAKING OF the Chamber, there are some reserved seats available on that air conditioned bus to Pleasanton for Albany Day Friday. Transportation to and from will cost only $1.75 per person. Leave at 11:30 a.m., start back at 8:30 p.m.

ALBANY'S TALENT program at 2:30 will feature Brian Hell-wig, Barbara Pareja, Janet Overby, Francis Davis, Carol Patterson and a duet in pantomime by Sue Luoma and Lisa Bell. Accompanists will be Cheryl Parker and Vickie Semas.

REPLACING MAID OF ALBANY Donna Dreyer as mistress of ceremonies for the talent show will be First Runnerup Sue Rotramel of 711 Key Route Blvd.

LEGION POST 292 reluctantly announces the demise of its baseball team. There's talk that they may sponsor the senior Little League team.

WHEN IT COMES to mail, I always open letters and bills. The rest of it usually is put aside to look at later. Don't ask me where the past six months went, but on July 4, I opened a fancy 8x10 inch invitation to the inauguration of Richard Milhous Nixon and Spiro Theodore Agnew, which took place Jan. 20! Isn't that the way it goes?

AT LEAST I made it to the installation of Spiro (Jean) Dagna as vice president of the Soroptimist Club.

DID YOU READ about that town where everyone stopped smoking? Anyone game to try to make Albany the No. 2 town? Suppose what you'd need is a target date, some way to sign up and then at the appointed time, a mass pitching of packs. Guess lots of us would enjoy TV a lot more without them. Call if you're interested. Let's see what happens.

Snorkel Helps Rating

ANY ASSISTANT FIRE CHIEF William Hutt shows a report from the Pacific Rating Bureau to Mayor Richard Clark and Councilman Lew Howell. The letter informs Albany that results of the recent survey puts Albany into a class III rating. The rating puts this community into the same class as Oakland, Berkeley and a few other cities bounding the San Francisco Bay. Ratings are classed 1 to 10 with the lower number being the higher rating. Fireman William Ledgebrook was a great factor in the rating. Albany enjoyed a previous III rating but to maintain this under new rating means is quite a feat. All seem quite happy with the news.
